For consideration later in the year

- Following the District Council elections in May 2015 – Biennial Review of Implemented Planning Decisions – To consider the following in respect of the tour in 2015: a) Members to decide if there were sufficient properties to visit; b) Members to provide suggestions of properties to visit; and c) Members to decide how the tour should be undertaken and how properties should be reviewed and scored. Panel to decide if the above items should be considered as part of the next scheduled meeting, or as an additional pre-meeting. At meeting 30/6/15 it was felt that this would be a useful process for new members however, it should be delayed and undertaken during the spring of 2016. A process to undertake the review should be drawn up and then agreed by the Chairman.

- Note: Following consideration of the Key Decision Plan, PMP and PDP have requested that a special Joint Meeting will be held to discuss the setting up of the South Holland Building Consultancy prior to it being considered by Cabinet (date to be confirmed).
